

Notice from Tax Office

If you are a salary earner, you are eligible for exemptions in your employer's year-end adjustment

Employees are eligible for exemptions such as spouse deduction, special spouse deduction, dependents deduction and insurance premium deduction in your employer's year-end adjustment. Please submit a declaration of exemption for dependents, etc. to your employer in order to receive the correct exemptions.

If you obtain these exemptions in the year-end adjustment, you do not need to file your final income tax return.

Calculate and print out your tax return in "Create Your Final Income Tax Return"

www.nta.go.jp ← click

If you enter the amounts indicated on the "Create Your Income Tax Return" page on the National Tax Agency website, it will automatically calculate your tax and create your income tax and special income tax for reconstruction tax return. You can then print out this return and submit it by post etc.

See the National Tax Agency website for details. www.nta.go.jp

You need an appointment for a consultation at your tax office

If you would like a consultation at your local tax office, you need to make an appointment in advance.

Please telephone to make an appointment before visiting.
