

Notice from the Ota Police Station: Lost and found

If you have lost something...

Go to the nearest police station, police box (koban), or residential police box (chuzaiho) and file a report. Notifications by phone are also accepted (handled in Japanese).

- ⇒ If you lost something in the bus, train or store, please confirm and check with the station attendant, bus company, or store clerk before filing a report with the police.
- ⇒ If you lose your credit/bank card or cellphone, please file a report with your credit card company, financial institution, or cellphone company in order to prevent illegal use.

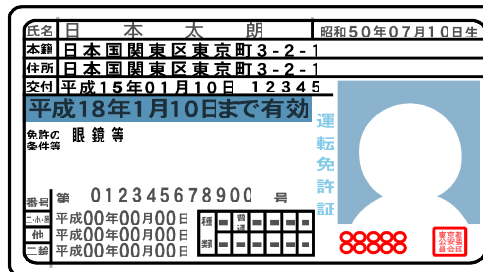

If your cat or dog goes missing...

Please file a report at a public health center before reporting to the police.

Please make sure to register your dog beforehand at city hall and vaccinate your dog against rabies every year!

If you lose your driver's license...

After filing a report for a lost item, please proceed to the Ota Traffic Safety Association or Gunma General Traffic Center and complete the necessary procedures to receive your reissued driver's license (open only on weekdays).

If you found a lost item...

Procedures for filing a report may differ depending on the place your lost item was found.

1. If an item was found on the street, please either return it to the owner or nearest police station, police box, or residential police box.
 - ⇒ In the case the owner of the lost item has been found within 7 days from filing the report, the individual who filed the report has the right to receive a reward. On the other hand, if the owner has not been found, the person who submitted the report becomes the new owner.
2. Please file reports for lost items found in trains, train stations, or stores to station attendants or store clerks within 24 hours.
 - ⇒ In these cases, the individual who filed the report has the right to receive a reward. On the other hand, if the owner has not been found, the person who submitted the report becomes the new owner.

You may report lost items 24 hours a day (excluding residential police boxes)

Keeping and not reporting lost items to the police is considered a crime!

Please contact the Ota Police Station for questions concerning filing reports on lost items.
