

Issuance of Various Certificates

Outline

Tax payment certificates are documents stating tax payments have been made. There are different types of tax payment certificates issued, which include Municipal and Prefectural Inhabitant Tax “Shikenminzei”; Fixed Property Tax “Kotei Shisanzei”; Light Motor Vehicle Tax “Keijidoushazei”; National Health Insurance Tax “Kokumin Kenkou Hokenzei”; and Corporate Municipal Inhabitant Tax “Hujin Shiminzei.”

Other types of certificates issued certifying you have made tax payments include Light Motor Vehicle Inspection Certificate “Keijidousha Shakenyou Nouzei Shoumei”; Certificate of Full Payment “Kannou Shoumei”; National Health Insurance Tax Payment Amount Confirmation Letter “Kokumin Kenkou Hokenzei Noufugaku Kakunin”; Certificate of Full Payment of all Municipal Taxes “Shizeitou Kannou Shougou.”

■ Counters

Certificates including tax payment (excluding Corporate Municipal Inhabitant tax), certificate of tax payment for light motor vehicle inspection (for continuous inspection) and National Health Insurance Tax Payment Amount Confirmation Letter (for filing of final income tax return “Kakutei Shinkoku”) can be obtained at various service centers and community “Gyousei” centers (with exception of Ota Community “Gyousei” Center).

However, the Certificate of Full Payment of all municipal taxes and National Health Insurance Tax Payment Amount Confirmation Letter (for year-end tax adjustment), or Certificate of Full Payment of all Municipal Taxes can only be issued at the Tax Collection Division “Shunou-ka.”
