

Guide for Child-Rearing Allowance Jidou Fuyou Teate

Requirement

Who qualifies

Parents or caregivers (e.g., grandparents) who raise (or support financially) a child* who meet one of the conditions below (qualify for child-rearing allowance).

Child whose:

1. Parents have divorced. (Incl. cases where de facto marriage has been dissolved.)
2. Mother has conceived outside marriage.
3. Father or mother has passed away.
4. Father or mother has a certain degree of disability (with criteria).
5. Father or mother is missing (due to an accident at sea, etc.).
6. Abandoned by their father or mother for one year or longer.
7. Father or mother has received a DV protection order by court.
8. Father or mother has been arrested for one year or longer.

Please be aware that you may be asked personal questions to check whether you are entitled for the allowance.

Who does NOT qualify

1. Applicant or their child has no address in Japan.
2. Their child is being entrusted to a foster care.
3. Their child is placed in a child welfare institution or other facility.

*What is the definition of a child?

- ✓ Being age 18 or under (up to high school student age) at the end of the fiscal year.
- ✓ Being age 19 or under for a child who have certain disabilities.

What is the definition of de facto marriage?

Living with a person of the opposite sex, or not necessarily living with them but receiving frequent visits or being supported financially.

Amount

【As of April 1st, 2025 (unit: yen)】

Number of Child	Category and Amount (per month)
	Fully	Partly
1 st Child	46,690	46,680 – 11,010
Additional Amount for 2 nd Child or more	11,030	11,020 – 5,520

The base month for the allowance is the month following the submission of the application. Two months' worth of allowances up to the previous month are paid into your bank account on the 11th of odd-numbered months.

(Six times a year in total.)

Payment months: May, July, September, November, January and March.

(E.g.: Payment in May is for March and April.)

Pensioner

If the applicant or their child is entitled to receive a public pension (incl. survivor, disability, retirement), the amount of the public pension would be subtracted from the allowance will be paid.

What is Income Limit?

There are restrictions on the allowance depending on the income of the applicant and family members who live together or share the same household income (E.g.: applicant's spouse, parents, siblings).

Income Limit

The allowance will be paid in full or in part if applicant's income Shotoku is under the limit as below. Please note that income is gross income which is different from earned / net income Shunyu.

In addition, flat deduction (80,000-yen) or various deductions may be available, and 80% of Child Support Youikuhi are included as income.

◎Gross income of 2023 is for Nov. 2024 to Oct. 2025 allowance.

Gross income of 2024 is for Nov. 2025 to Oct. 2026 allowance.

(unit: yen)

No. of Dependent	Applicant's Income Limit		Family Members, etc. Income Limit
	Full Amount	Partly
0	690,000	2,080,000	2,360,000
1	1,070,000	2,460,000	2,740,000
2	1,450,000	2,840,000	3,120,000

Note: If there are three or more dependents, the limit is 380,000-yen per child added to the above income amount.

For more details, please check the city website (Japanese) or contact below.

Ota City Hall (3F / Counter 31),
Children's Affairs Division Kodomo-Ka
〒373-8718 Ota-Shi Hama-Cho 2-35 ☎0276-47-1942 (Direct)

