

For Children Born Abroad:

Required Documents for Childbirth Lump-sum Allowance Application

Please prepare the following documents and other related documents if necessary.

1. National Health Insurance Card, Eligibility Certificate, etc.

<<Eligibility must be confirmed at the time of childbirth.>>

2. Passport of person who gave birth

Personnel must be able to confirm and check the entry/departure of the country where the child was delivered, as well as re-entry into Japan at the time of your application. In the case your passport is not stamped upon entry/departure, please bring your boarding pass or immigration record (issued at immigration), etc. along with documents (original copy) that can verify the date you entered/left the country.

3. Birth Certificate (original)

A certificate certified by an official body that proves the birth of the child.

● In the case of still births, documents that can verify this (Notification of Death, a certificate from the hospital, etc.)

※ Japanese translation attached (translator's address, phone number, name, and inkan-seal)

※ Please understand there may be additional documents requested in order to verify the written contents of your application.

4. Original copy of the medical bill for your childbirth (detailed receipt)

Please submit the original copy of your medical bill, etc. with the application.

※ Japanese translation attached (translator's address, phone number, name, and inkan-seal)

※ Please understand there may be additional documents requested in order to verify the written contents of your application

5. Maternal and Child Health Handbook (issued by Japan)

6. Head of your household's Inkan-seal (self-inking (rubber) seals are not acceptable)

7. Head of the household's bank book

(A letter of proxy is required for individuals other than the head of the household)

※ You will be unable to receive this allowance if you leave any omissions or do not have all of the required documents. Please apply with all of the required documents, etc.

Please note that the screening process will take a considerable amount of time.

Contact: Ota City (1F/Counter 16),

National Health Insurance Division Kokumin Kenkou Hoken-Ka ☎0276-47-1825

太田市役所 国民健康保険課「海外で出産した場合の出産育児一時金申請時に必要な書類等について」・英語版