

Medical Insurance for Older Senior Citizens

The Medical Insurance for Older Senior Citizens Kouki Koureisha Iryou Hoken is a medical insurance system created for elderlies 75 years and older. Ota residents 75 years and older must withdraw from their current health insurance (incl. National Health Insurance Kokumin Kenkou Hoken, employer's health insurance Shakai Hoken) and enroll in the Medical Insurance for Older Senior Citizens.

1. Eligible Individuals

- Individuals 75 years and older (enrollment will start from their 75th birthday.)
- Individuals between the ages of 65 and 74 that have certain disabilities may also enroll.

2. Eligibility Certificate Shikaku Kakuninsho OR

Eligibility Confirmation Notice Shikaku Kakunin no Oshirase

- An eligibility certificate or eligibility confirmation notice will be sent by post mail one month before their 75th birthday.
- An eligibility certificate or eligibility confirmation notice contains the percentage the insurer is responsible for (10%, 20% or 30%). When visiting a medical facility, please show either your MyNa Health Insurance Card or eligibility certificate at the reception to receive consultations at the rate.

3. Insurance premium (payment amount)

- Each person will be responsible for payment. The forms for making payment will be mailed, so complete the payment as they are.
- The insurance premium (payment amount) is calculated on an individual basis in accordance to the person's (and their head of household's) income.

4. Procedures and notification

<If the following conditions apply, procedures are required.>

- Disabled individuals between the ages of 65 and 74 who want to enroll.
- In the case your certificate is lost or becomes soiled beyond use.
- Moving out of Gunma Prefecture.
- Moving into Gunma Prefecture (from another prefecture).
- Moving (changing address) within Gunma Prefecture.
- Renewing the period of stay.
- In the case of death (a payment will be made for funeral expenses).
- Receiving medical treatment expenses (e.g., making an equipment for treatment).
- Receiving benefits toward high-cost medical care expenses. (A notice will be sent if you are eligible.)

5. Health Examinations

- (Free of charge) Special Health Examination Tokutei Kenshin
- (Free of charge) Dental Checkups Shika Kenshin (Notification will be sent to those who turned 75 in the previous year and who apply.)
