Municipal Tax Payment Methods

■ Outline

Municipal Taxes can be paid through financial institutions (including the Japan Post Bank and Post Office), Convenience Stores (includes MMK installation stores), Tax Collection Division Shunou-Ka at City Hall (2F/Counter 23), or at the counters of the Service Centers and Community Gyousei Centers (excludes Ota Community Gyousei Center). Account transfers are also available at your convenience.

■ Method of Payment

Please bring the Payment Slip Noufusho with a tax notice attached that you received in the post mail from Ota City, and make the payment (cash only) directly at the Tax Collection Division in Ota City Hall or at a financial institution. Municipal Taxes can also be paid at the Service Centers or Community Centers (excludes Ota Community Center).

Other payment methodsNote including at convenient stores in the country, or direct debit, which debits municipal taxes from a financial institution's savings account, or payment by smartphone, are available. (Note: No receipt will be issued.)

Previously, to pay by direct debit, you needed to submit a direct debit request form at a financial institution's counter. However, starting April 2025, you can complete the direct debit setup at the city hall counter using only your bank card and the PIN.

Check the 2D code on the left for the Tax Collection Division website: "Apply for Direct Debit at City Hall Counters."

Payment through smartphone by reading barcodes are available:

- ① “モバイル レジ (mobile regi* / direct debit or credit card payment),”
- ② PayPay (invoice payment),
- ③ d pay (invoice payment),
- ④ J-Coin pay (invoice payment / Service ends on August 31,2026),
- ⑤ au PAY (invoice payment), ⑥ Rakuten pay (invoice payment).

(*Note: For payment, credit card payment fees are the responsibility of the cardholder.)

- For Information on the payment by eL-QR reading, please check the Local Tax Payment website “地方税お支払サイト” by the Joint Agency for Local Taxation. The website name is scheduled to change to ‘eL Tax for payment’ from September 2026.’ Please also see the link to the 'Local Tax Payment Website' on the City's Tax Collection Division website under 'Cashless Payment of Municipal Taxes.'
